About Arthur Collection

With a total commitment to delivering products of distinction, quality and comfort... we understand how these products complement both the individual and the environment in which they are placed. Arthur brings to life products that assist in fueling "The Machine for Living". For us the home is both a personal expression and a place of serenity, void of complexity. Our clients demand luxury and quality, while having the sophistication to appreciate design simplicity.

Our goal is to create clean timeless environments with family in mind for generations, creating design pedigree. For this reason, Arthur takes a bespoke approach to manufacturing our furniture and accessories. With a wide variety of textiles, woods and metal finishes to choose from, each product is hand made to order. Each piece is handcrafted to insure heirloom quality and finished the the highest standards.
